

CV Template for trainers

Name Last Name	Julianna Brandt
Contact details	+358405230867 juliannaa.brandt@gmail.com
Year of birth	1993
Gender	Woman
Formal Education level / Title (accredited degrees)	Professional Youth worker Bachelor Degree on European Ethnology (2015-2018) Master degree in Youth Research and Youth Work (2018-2020)
Additional education background (optional) / not necessarily accredited, but attesting additional skills	Specialised course 00 Specialised course 01
NFE ToT – most important reference 1	EVS- volunteering for Ljubljana Pride, in Ljubljana Duration of course 19.5-20.7.2018 Organiser of course European Voluntary service, Ljubljana Pride and Peace Education Institute Certification yes/no yes Short description of main competences gained: Practically working toward intersectionality work, interviewing people and making good recommendations for organisations on how to be more inclusive. Working in English language and to be more sure of using it.
NFE ToT – most important reference 2	Type of ToT/TfT (residential, online;) MOD-training, in Helsinki Duration of course 9-10.2018 Organiser of course Peace Education Institute Certification yes/no no Short description of main competences gained realize more how to use your own identity in your work as a trainer and how it affects you. Learn more about we-them-dichotomy and how prejudices can be developed.
NFE ToT – most important reference 3	Type of ToT/TfT (residential, online;) Identity Maze, in Ljubljana and Ribnica Duration of course 7-15.9.2018 Organiser of course: Drustvo za kulturo inkluzije Certification yes/no yes

	Learnt how you can use your creativity and games for pedagogical learning and understanding of intersectionality. Learning how important is the language you use in your trainers (also because of sensitivity but also because of different levels of language skills) Learning more about what are my strongest parts as a trainer- courage and approachable
Other references – authoring publications	“Life as an in-betweeners”- article of having Cerebral Palsy and being Youth Worker and Trainer. In the Youth Research Magazine 2/2018 In Youth Work Magazine there is coming soon article about my EVS- experiences in Ljubljana
Other references – authoring pedagogical material	With Identity Maze- project we are working on tool kit
Other references - lecturer	In March of 2018 I delivered my first training which include in Outside In- project. In International Day of Peace I delivered panel discussion and speech about what is peace, my experiences as a EVS-volunteer and what are inclusion and intersectionality In EVS-volunteering time. Part of Ljubljana Pride’s programme I was in panel discussion telling about what it means to have a different ability and also be part of the LGBT+ community and how these things connect as a level of intersectionality
Other references – specialised skills relevant to training environment	My special areas as trainer and intersectionality in many meanings, and knowledge of LGBT+ community and different abilities related themes.